MOLLY LOPEZ, CAE, APPOINTED AMC SECTION COUNCIL MEMBER

Des Moines, IA, August 19, 2008—Association Management, Ltd. (AML) Owner/President Molly A. Lopez, CAE, has been appointed to the international Association Management Company (AMC) Section Council for the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) & The Center for Association Leadership. Lopez will serve as Editor for the AMC Connections quarterly newsletter.

ASAE & The Center serve approximately 10,000 associations that represent more than 287 million people and organizations worldwide. ASAE has 13 professional interest sections, providing a community for nearly every sub-specialty within association management. The AMC Section Council members are selected for their experience and leadership within the AMC community. The Council develops and maintains resources for AMC professionals, including training courses, a quarterly newsletter, an annual AMC directory, and a listerv, all designed to provide information and insight into effective AMC management.

Lopez, a Certified Association Executive (CAE), owns Association Management, Ltd., a Des Moines-based, internationally recognized, nationally accredited, 32-year old association management company. With a staff team of nine, the firm manages the operations, membership services, education/meeting planning, certification programs, Web site maintenance, and Board/volunteer management for nine international, national, regional and state trade associations and professional societies with 5,000+ members in 57 countries. AML is also an active member of the AMC Institute, an international trade association of association management companies.
