

Contact: Kelly Kipping
Iowa Society of Association Executives
431 East Locust Street, Suite 300
Des Moines, IA 50309
Telephone 515-243-1558

Press Release

Molly Lopez Appointed to ASAE Section Council

Des Moines, January 27, 2004: Molly Lopez, CAE, President & Owner of Association Management Ltd. (AML), was recently appointed to the Association Management Company (AMC) Section Council of the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE). ASAE, known as the “association of associations”, is considered the advocate for the nonprofit sector. The society is dedicated to advancing the value of voluntary associations to society and supporting the professionalism of the individuals who lead them. Founded in 1920 as the American Trade Association Executives, with 67 charter members, ASAE now has 25,000 individual members who manage leading trade, professional, and philanthropic associations. ASAE represents approximately 10,000 associations serving more than 287 million people and companies worldwide and vendors that offer products and services to the association community. Lopez and her Council members represent over 457 association management company individual members across the country.

Lopez is a Certified Association Executive (CAE) and will serve on the ASAE AMC Section Council for a one-year term.

Lopez, a 15-year veteran in the association management profession has held executive positions with the Iowa Association of Business and Industry (ABI) and the Iowa Credit Union League (ICUL) prior to purchasing an association management company called Association Management, Ltd. (AML) in 1999. AML is an internationally recognized, nationally-accredited, multi-client, full-service association management company, headquartered in Des Moines, IA. Lopez is active at the state level in the Iowa Society of Association Executives (ISAE) and is a member of the National Association of Women Business Owners - Central Iowa Chapter, and the Greater Des Moines Partnership.