LINDA ODSON RETIRES AFTER 25-YEARS AT ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT, LTD.

DES MOINES, Iowa – Association Management, Ltd. (AML) announces the retirement of Linda Odson, CFO/Financial Manager, after 25-years of service with the company.

Since 1985, Linda Odson has served in many capacities with AML, working her way up from part time Receptionist, to Account Executive, to Office Manager, and to her current position of CFO/Financial Manager.

“Our 34-year old association management company has grown and developed over the years into a Des Moines-based, internationally accredited firm, serving nine association clients representing 5,000 individual members and 500 company members from 57 countries. Linda has contributed to our company’s longevity and success with her financial management and organizational skills and by bringing continuity, stability, perspective and humor,” said AML President Molly Lopez, CAE. “We are grateful for her years of service, sad to see her retire and happy for Linda and her family.”

Linda Odson lives in Ankeny with her husband Steve, who retired in 2009 after 30-years with John Deere. They have two sons, James and Bryce and five grandchildren in the Ankeny area. The Odsons plan to travel, enjoy their grandchildren and spend more time at the two small residences that they own in Southwest Iowa and Northeast Iowa.

Headquartered in Des Moines, Iowa, since 1976 AML has provided management solutions for international, national, regional, state and local trade and professional associations. AML is an internationally accredited association management company through the AMC Institute, the only internationally accredited firm in Iowa and one of only 50 accredited firms worldwide. AML manages the business of your association so you can achieve your organization’s mission and vision.
