SCHMITZ JOINS IOWA SOYBEAN ASSOCIATION, ASSOCIATION MANAGEMENT, LTD.

Ankeny, Iowa – Kailah Schmitz has joined the Iowa Soybean Association (ISA) as administrative assistant for Association Management, Ltd. (AML), a division of ISA Management Solutions, Inc.

Schmitz is an administrative professional with six years of experience in customer service, office operations, social media management and administrative support for a veterinary clinic. She currently assists the AML team to provide membership, communications and conference services for AML’s ten state, national and international association clients. Her role includes performing membership outreach and follow up, research and reporting, database management, meeting planning assistance and administrative support.

“I am very excited to be a part of the Iowa Soybean Association’s AML division,” Schmitz said. “I enjoy working with the staff team and the diverse client base of associations at AML. Volunteer leaders and members invest their time, money and talent in associations to advance their industries and increase their own professional development. Each day, associations create positive change in Iowa, America and around the world. It is great to be a part of it.”

Schmitz and her husband Jeff reside in Roland, where they enjoy being outdoors and spending time with their two dogs.

The Iowa Soybean Association (www.iasoybeans.com) develops policies and programs that help Iowa’s more than 40,000 soybean farmers expand profit opportunities while promoting environmentally sensitive production using the soybean checkoff and other resources. The association was founded in 1964 and is governed by an elected volunteer board of 21 farmers. It strives to be honest and transparent, fact-based and data driven and committed to environmental stewardship, collaborations and partnerships.
